

Group Urges NHTSA To Recall Jeeps Over Fire Hazard

A consumer group has lodged a petition urging the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration to recall a decade's worth of Jeep Grand Cherokees, saying versions of the vehicle that have the fuel tank located behind the rear axle pose a serious danger to drivers. Source: Product Liability Law360